Commissioner Cagle Hits the Road with Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education

ATLANTA, Ga., (October 25, 2011) – Bright from the Start Commissioner Bobby Cagle has hit the road this week with the Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education (GPEE)! He is one of 80 riders on their Annual Bus Trip Across Georgia. Be sure to follow his updated tweets at @DECALCommish.

This is GPEE's 19th Annual Bus Tour Across Georgia. During the next three days, participants will visit eight achieving schools to both celebrate their winning formulas as well as to learn about best practices at each of the institutions.

- Lake Oconee Academy, Greensboro, Greene County Schools
- Oak Hill Middle School, Milledgeville, Baldwin County Schools
- Langston Chapel Elementary School, Statesboro, Bulloch County Schools
- Claxton Middle School, Claxton, Evans County Schools
- Taylors Creek Elementary School, Hinesville, Liberty County Schools
- Golden Isles Career Academy, Brunswick, Glynn County Schools
- Sugarmill Elementary School, St. Mary's, Camden County Schools
- Ware County High School, Waycross, Ware County Schools

Please visit GPEE's website (<http://www.gpee.org/Annual-Bus-Trip.16.0.html>) for more information.
